CAULERPA TAXIFOLIA CONTAINMENT AREA IN THE PORT RIVER

The State Government has made several changes to the management of the noxious weed Caulerpa taxifolia in the Port River.

The anchoring ban has now been lifted, and replaced with a designated Caulerpa taxifolia containment area.

The 'containment area' is defined approximately as all those waters enclosed by an imaginary line across the entrance of the breakwaters at Outer Harbor, then along the seaward breakwater to its northern end, then northward to the Black Pole, and then in a north easterly direction to the shore. This area is generally accepted as being the Port River estuary. The containment area can be distinguished as the area bound by the Outer Harbor breakwater to the Black Pole and across to the St Kilda Mangroves. The full coordinates are available on the PIRSA website at: www.pir.sa.gov.au/biosecuritysa/aquatics

Port River users must not be in possession of or translocate Caulerpa taxifolia from the containment area to other waters of South Australia. If you do anchor or fish in the containment area, check your anchors, chain and fishing gear for Caulerpa taxifolia before leaving the area.

More information is available by telephoning the PIRSA Fishwatch Hotline 1800 065 522 or the website www.pir.sa.gov.au/biosecuritysa/aquatics

Vibe

Hans up for some dirty fun

MEDICAL MIRACLE: Hans.

IT'S time to air your secrets and dirty laundry for the Adelaide Fringe show, Hans' Dirty Laundry.

Reporter Kasia Ozog chats to Hans to see if he'll come clean.

Thanks for your time, I understand you must be very busy with rehearsals.

Yes! This is a huge imposition for me so I'm glad you realise how valuable my time is darling.

How are rehearsals going?

Honestly, I have even impressed myself in these rehearsals. Just when I thought I couldn't get any better, somehow I do. I'm some sort of medical miracle.

What is the show all about?

I've called it Hans' Dirty Laundry because people often come into my show with all their secrets and baggage and I have a habit of cleansing them. I put them through my rinse cycle and leave them out to dry. Having said that, I promise this will be my dirtiest show yet.

Are the Lucky Bitches in the show again? And a band?

I've decided to give them all another chance even though I could gladly trade them in.

Last year you said you were more talented than Meryl Streep. Who are you comparing yourself to this year?

Many have said they haven't ever seen a talent like mine. I would have to agree with that.

Lady Gaga arrived at this year's Grammy Awards in an egg-shaped vessel. Will you have any grand entrances to your shows?

I'm not mad for a grand entrance, but I do like a big opening... a big opening dance number that is!

Hans' Dirty Laundry, the Mars Bar, 120 Gouger St, city, until March 12. Bookings: Fringetix
